

NRHA BOARD OF DIRECTORS DUTIES

- Leads by example and is representative of the association's membership.
- Seeks and respects the opinions of other Board members.
- Looks for sound and innovative solutions on behalf of the organization.
- Works to develop consensus.
- Represents the best interests of the membership in Board deliberations.
- Assists in providing oversight on NRHA's future direction in meeting the goals of the organization and its growth.
- Participates actively in Board meetings and the governance of the association through formulation, review and execution oversight of the business decisions guiding the overall direction of NRHA.
  - Reviews meeting agendas and materials in advance.
  - Reviews and approves finance reports, budgets and business decisions to meet the organizations need and ensuring fiduciary responsibilities are met.
  - Ensures NRHA complies with legal requirements.
  - Maintains confidentiality on internal NRHA affairs.
  - Maintains the duties of care, loyalty and obedience as a director of the organization.
- Knows NRHA's programs and needs.
- Understands and follows NRHA bylaws, rules and policies.
- Keeps up with horse industry and reining industry trends and issues that could impact NRHA.
- Identifies and recruits new members to strengthen the association.