

NAMING GUIDELINES FOR NRHA APPROVED EVENTS

GUIDELINES

1. All events approved by NRHA shall be named, advertised, listed and otherwise referred to as an NRHA-approved event.
2. NRHA reserves the right to regulate and alter the names of approved events.
3. No individual or organization shall name any class, show, event, sale, or other activity sponsored by such individual or organization which states or infers that the same is approved by NRHA without the written permission of NRHA.

RESERVED TERMS

1. The terms including, but not limited to, those listed in this rule shall not be used in the name of a class, show or event unless approved by NRHA.
 1. Examples of reserved terms: Champion, Championship, Affiliate, World, Global, International, European, Oceania, Brazilian, etc.
2. These terms are reserved for classes, shows and events sponsored by NRHA, an NRHA National Association Affiliate or an NRHA alliance organization.
3. NRHA reserves the right to regulate and alter the names of approved events, so they do not state or infer connection to NRHA titles or awards.

Approved Oct. 2024