

Non Pro / Youth Lease FAQ

- Who can lease a horse for NRHA competition?
  - Non Pro and Youth members are eligible to lease a horse for showing purposes.

- Do I have to send in the horse's original competition license?
  - Yes, the lease form, lease fee and the original competition license must be turned in to the NRHA office prior to competing. After the lease is processed, a lease certificate will be mailed to you. The certificate will be required as proof of the lease when entering NRHA events.

- If I lease a horse with NRHA, can I show that horse in any class?
  - You only show in any NRHA class, except Categories 2 and 6 classes.

- How much is an NRHA lease?
  - $100 for the initial lease, and then $20 for every renewal.

- When does my lease expire?
  - All leases expire on December 31st of each year. Renewals must be submitted by this date to be eligible for the renewal pricing.

- Is there a limit on how many times I can renew a lease?
  - You can renew a lease unlimited times with the NRHA, but all leases do expire on December 31st of each year.

- If I void my lease before December 31st, can someone else lease that horse for the remainder of the year?
  - Only one lease per year is allowed for each horse.

- Can I turn in my lease form at the show?
  - All leases must come in to the NRHA office with the original competition license and fee for processing prior to competing. Please allow time for processing and return mailing.

- If I lease my horse, can my trainer still show it?
  - Yes, a Professional can compete on the leased horse in any Open Competition they are eligible for, this includes Category 2 & 6 Classes.

- I have already turned in a lease with AQHA, do I still have to turn a lease form in with NRHA?
  - Yes, the NRHA lease form is required for NRHA competition and must be on file prior to competing. An AQHA lease does not fulfill this requirement for NRHA competition.

- Does the Leasor have to be a current NRHA member?
  - Yes, they have to be a member. An Associate membership is acceptable.

- Whose ownership records get credited with the earnings while the lease is active?
  - The Lessee earns the points/money during the term of the lease.

- Can the owner show their horse when it is being leased?
  - Lessors with Non Pro, Youth, Youth Non Pro or Associate memberships may show the leased horse in Category 10 (Green Reiner, Ride & Slide), Rookie (Rookie L1, Rookie L2, Prime Time Rookie, Youth Rookie) and Unrestricted Youth, as there are no ownership restrictions in these classes. Refer to the current policy set forth by the Board regarding Eligibility.

- I am a lessee and want to purchase the horse I've been leasing. How do I transfer it into my name?
  - Contact the Member & Show Services Department for instructions and a form to complete the transfer.

- After the lease expires on December 31st, how does the original owner (lessor) receive a competition license for the horse that was previously leased?
  - Contact the Member Services Department for instructions. NRHA membership must be current before the competition license will be issued.

- Can a lease be terminated early?

Yes, a lease can be terminated at any time. The lease termination form can be found on nrha.com under "Forms and Documents."
