

2022 NRHA OCEANIA AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIP CONDITIONS

1. To qualify to compete in the 2022 Oceania Affiliate Championships, there will be no other requirements other than those listed below:
For 2022, there will be no qualifying for the 2022 NRHA Oceania Affiliate Championships. 2. Category 1 Restricted Oceania eligibility will be used to determine rider eligibility. Riders qualified in Non Pro classes including Rookie Level 1, Level 2 and Prime Time Rookie must have current NRHA Non Pro status to enter the Championship classes.
3. A rider may show only three (3) horses per class at the Oceania Affiliate Championships. A horse may compete in more than one Oceania Affiliate Championship class.

YOUTH TEAM TOURNAMENT

1. All of the Youth entries in the Oceania Affiliate Championship classes will be automatically entered into the Youth Team Tournament.
2. Youth will be separated into two categories: Youth 13 & Under and Youth 14-18.
3. On each team there will be four riders, at least one Youth 13 & Under and at least one Youth 14-18.
4. All teams will be drawn at random prior to the run of the Youth Classes after the class entries have closed.
5. These teams will be posted either online, on the show grounds, or both so they are visible for all to see.
6. If there are more riders in one division than the other, the youth will be redrawn in the division that has less riders to make up the teams for the division with more riders, and will therefore be a part of multiple teams. For Example if there are twelve 13 & Under riders and only ten 14-18, then two 14-18 riders will be redrawn at random to fill the team for the additional 13 & Under riders, and these two 14-18 riders will have their score count for two teams.
7. The lowest score in each team will be dropped.
8. Scratches will be considered the dropped score.
9. An awards ceremony with all youth present (if possible) will follow the completion of the Youth Classes and individual Youth awards ceremonies.
